7. Lawfulness

- 7.1 Accounting : Art 2:10 Civil Code. The management is obliged to keep the accounts showing the rights and obligations of the legal entity at any time. Whether this obligation was met will be investigated by the trustees.
- 7.2 Filing of the annual accounts (publication requirements) : The Financial year of Oad runs from 1 November to 31 October. From the online trade register of the Chamber of Commerce it appears that the consolidated accounts for the Financial year 2010-2011 were filed by the OAD Groep Holding B.V. on the 6th of December 2012. That means the legal term was exceeded by 6 days. In administrative justice such exceeding is not considered mismanagement which is considered an important cause of the bankruptcy. The annual accounts of the financial year 2011-2012 had not been published at the time of the bankruptcy order. The trustees examine whether the legal publishing term for the annual accounts 2011-2012 has been exceeded and if so what would be the consequences.
- 7.3 Unqualified audit opinion : As regards the annual accounts for the Financial year 2010-2011 an audit report was issued by an independent auditor. As regards the annual accounts for 2011-2012 no audit report had been issued by an independent auditor at the time of the bankruptcy order.
- 7.4 Compulsory payment on shares : The trustees will investigate whether the paying up commitment has been fulfilled.

- 7.5 Mismanagement : The trustees will investigate whether the managers failed to properly fulfill their duties and if so, whether it may be assumed that this was an important cause of the bankruptcy (as referred to in article 2:248 Civil Code), or whether the managers may be considered responsible otherwise. The trustees will carry out the usual investigations within the framework of the bankruptcy. In view of the size of the company and the interests involved in the bankruptcy, the trustees will engage forensic accountants and external lawyers in their investigations. It is to be expected that the investigations will take quite some time.
- 7.6 Fraudulent acting in respect of creditors : The trustees will investigate whether there have been legal actions which may have damaged one or more creditors. If necessary, such legal actions will be nullified by an out of court statement.
